

Israel Emergency Fund Allocations

Organizations that you will visit or hear from on this solidarity mission*

American Jewish Committee (AJC)

The American Jewish Committee advocates for the Jewish people and Israel and defends democratic values for all. With more than 75 offices, institutes, and international partnerships, AJC is there wherever the Jewish people need them. They address the critical challenges facing Jews worldwide, seek out the boldest opportunities on their behalf, and work to build a stronger global Jewish community.

AMEN – The Land Where Women Heal

AMEN, which stands for Admat Marpeh Nashit "feminine healing ground," is a center for healing, celebration, and leadership and part of the Ohela Association. Early after the events of October 7, AMEN set up women's clinics in the Dead Sea and Eilat evacuation areas and have been treating 60 patients on average per day in each space. The holistic approach of AMEN complements the conventional approaches provided by government agencies. Jewish Federations funding will help AMEN continue to operate their treatment centers for evacuees for an additional month.

Association for the Wellbeing of Israeli Soldiers

The Association for the Wellbeing of Israel's Soldiers is a leading organization conducting activities for soldiers. The Association's Emergency Relief Fund will support IDF soldiers in the hours, days, and weeks ahead. This fund enables the purchase of essentials for front-line soldiers, including vital personal gear and clothing (non-tactical) and basic physical hygiene supplies.

Association of Rape Crisis Centers in Israel

The Association of Rape Crisis Centers in Israel (ARCCI) is an umbrella organization for nine regional Rape Crisis Centers (RCCs) whose main aim is to combat sexual violence. The RCCs work at the individual and regional levels providing services and support for individual victims of sexual violence and working to raise awareness in their local communities. ARCCI will train professionals with war-trauma-informed therapy and tools, provide direct assistance to survivors, support groups for survivors and witnesses, and ensure evacuee hotels are as safe as possible.

ATIDIM

ATIDIM, which means Futures, is a national program developing human resources and closing the socioeconomic gaps crippling Israel's periphery, by creating equal educational opportunities. It is a comprehensive, compelling program that identifies talented young people from Israel's underprivileged areas and gives them the chance to get on track to higher education. ATIDIM's Educational Resilience Program for Traumatized Teens will be a one-stop-shop for preparation for the future, comprising both digital and physical programs to provide informal education, enrichment, and wellbeing activities. The pilot will begin with 500 teens evacuated from northern communities living in hotels in Tiberias.

Ben Gurion University*

More than 500 of BGU's medical, nursing, and social work students were thrown into emergency room triage and are volunteering at Soroka Medical Center, BGU's teaching hospital partner located across the street. The dorms have been turned into barracks and emergency housing for families of the injured. Americans for Ben-Gurion University launched NEGEV STRONG: BGU's Wartime Initiative. Gifts to the fund directly support the most vulnerable members of the BGU community in the following ways: Aid the BGU Resilience Center in providing much-needed counseling, housing, and more. BGU also created a new "Resilience Center" in Beer-Sheva for all members of the community to provide: Immediate psychological and social counseling, temporary housing for those whose homes have been destroyed or declared unsafe, and financial aid.

Birthright Israel

Birthright Israel's mission is to provide all young Jewish adults with opportunities for transformative and immersive shared experiences in Israel and a foundation for ongoing Jewish connection. Birthright Israel is using its extensive logistical infrastructure and contracts with hotels to host evacuees from the conflict zones.

Brothers and Sisters for Israel

Brothers and Sisters of Israel is the largest civilian aid organization operating in Israel, entirely powered by volunteers who are former IDF soldiers, ensuring that 100% of funds go directly toward acquiring essential resources and supplies. Their leading efforts include combat gear for soldiers, humanitarian support, meals, clothing, and evacuation for those in war zones, accommodation for the displaced, and nationwide logistics centers.

Bshvil Hamachar

Bshvil Hamachar is a grassroots effort that helps those impacted by the war. The project provides non-military supplies to soldiers.

FIDF

Friends of the IDF has provided funds to Israel for the following supplies: operational ambulances, intensive care ambulance, temporary field hospital, portable health machines and monitors (x-ray, blood pressure, ECG plasma kits), cooler for refrigerating blood, scrubs, clothes & towels. They also provide counseling, mental health and emotional support to soldiers, including visits with wounded soldiers and bereaved families and well-being needs for reservists.

Givat Haviva – The Center for a Shared Society *

Givat Haviva is a civil society organization for social change, striving to create a model society in Israel anchored in principles of mutual respect, trust, pluralism, and intrinsic equality between citizens. Givat Haviva is on a 40-acre educational campus with guest rooms, classrooms, an auditorium, and dining room. The campus is now home to 260 evacuees from the conflict zones in Israel. Givat Haviva provides these families with accommodations, three meals a day, mental health support, and various healing activities.

Hand in Hand Center for Jewish-Arab Education

A historic partner of the Federation, Hand in Hand's mission is to cultivate equality, cooperation, and shared society among Jewish and Arab citizens of Israel via integrated, bilingual, and multicultural schools. Like all schools, Hand in Hand is responding to a crisis and has brought in extra resources to help with counseling and mental health support and expanding their shelters. Hand in Hand is a network of seven schools throughout Israel and has been able to maintain their diverse community (Arab and Jewish students, faculty and parents) throughout the crisis.

Honest Reporting

HonestReporting is a media watchdog committed to exposing anti-Israel prejudice across traditional mainstream and social media. Since Hamas' October 7 massacre of Israeli civilians, and the subsequent declaration of war by Israel, the floodgates of blatant antisemitic anti-Zionism have opened. Broadcast and print journalism are publishing Hamas talking points, and social media accounts are spreading blatant lies.

Hospitals, Mental Health, and Rehabilitation Centers (JFNA)

The Israeli hospital system has treated the thousands of patients who were injured during the horrific events of October 7, and in the fighting since in the south and north. In parallel, all hospitals in Israel have been preparing for a potential expansion of the rocket fire to impact much larger areas of the country.

Jewish Federations have supported twenty-seven general hospitals and four rehabilitation hospitals to purchase urgently needed medical equipment to rapidly strengthen their emergency response capabilities. Each hospital was given an allocation based on a few factors: The number of wounded it treated, location within the country (priority to north and south), size of the hospital, and emergency needs. In addition, ten psychiatric hospitals have been supported to provide mental health services to those most affected by the war.

Hostages and Missing Families Forum*

The Hostage and Missing Families Forum was formed by the families of hostages following the horrific terrorist attack on Israeli citizens. The Forum is a nonprofit organization founded solely to bring back the people abducted and held hostage in Gaza. The Forum's strategy is to affect sustainable global public opinion in order to pressure countries who host and support Hamas for the immediate release of the hostages. Jewish Federations provide direct support to these families.

IsraAid

IsraAID is an independent NGO working in humanitarian aid and disaster response. In Israel, they are partnering with local groups to coordinate humanitarian efforts, provide mental health, education, and protection support, and urgent aid to evacuated and vulnerable communities. Funding to provide support in logistics and coordination for all their activities.

Israel Emergency Loan Fund

The Jewish Federations Israel Emergency Loan Fund will address Israel's largescale impending economic crisis stemming from the critical liquidity issues faced by tens of thousands of businesses amid the war. Through allocations to fully vetted existing loan platforms, the Loan Fund will deliver capital quickly and at scale across regions, sectors, and industries.

Philanthropic capital will absorb losses and support discounted borrowing rates, allowing the loan platforms to access leverage from banks and insurance companies to provide small and medium business loans at a total value of 3-5 times the value of capital allocated by the Loan Fund.

Israel Trauma Coalition (ITC) *

The Israel Trauma Coalition (ITC), a key Federation emergency partner, is the cornerstone in the national treatment of trauma and emergency preparedness in Israel. ITC operates 12 resilience centers, mostly in the Gaza border area, which offer a unique model that provides a seamless response along the continuum between emergency preparedness, emergency, and recovery. ITC also works through its member organizations to provide additional mental health and psychosocial services, such as the emotional support hotlines that have been opened by Eran and Natal. Jewish Federations will support the provision of care for evacuees, first responders, and medical professionals, along with a national hotline.

Jewish Agency for Israel and Victims of Terror Fund (JAFI)*

The Jewish Agency for Israel's Fund for Victims of Terror is providing immediate, critical financial aid to victims and their families. In addition, the Jewish Agency is providing housing, food, activities, security, economic assistance, and more for new olim and elderly residents, including Holocaust survivors, in the conflict zone.

JDC*

The American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, JDC, is one of Jewish Federations' historic partners, with deep roots and an unshakable connection to the State of Israel. JDC is caring for those who have no one else to turn to – vulnerable seniors, people with disabilities, children and young adults at risk, families in financial distress, and the unemployed. Jewish Federation emergency support will enable JDC to respond to the unique needs of these special populations as well as the southern communities, the residents and leadership, to advance efforts of restoring personal security, ensuring access to government benefits, embracing vulnerable populations, strengthening local leadership and resources, and providing multi-faceted care for youth. JDC is also providing training and counseling to frontline professionals to ensure they have the support they need to continue their important work.

Jewish National Fund

The Jewish National Fund stands with Israel amid the most recent and unprecedented attacks against countless civilians. The Israel Resilience Campaign supports the following: Evacuation from hardest hit communities on the border including transportation and emergency housing; Provide hygiene, bedding, and care packages to those in need; Provide firefighting and protective equipment to those on the front lines; Offer psychological treatment; Give the local communities the promise of rebuilding for tomorrow.

Kolot

Kolot's mission is to strengthen Israel by promoting pluralism, inclusivity, and shared Jewish values among its leaders. Kolot, founded in 1997, is dedicated to strengthening Israel by harnessing the richness of Jewish textual tradition to create an ethical and moral society that values the diverse voices of its citizens.

LATET

Latet "To Give" – is a leading Israeli non-profit combatting poverty and food insecurity and working to mobilize Israeli civil society toward mutual responsibility. Latet started providing a humanitarian response to individuals and families affected by the war by providing food and hygiene kits to those most in need. With the support of Jewish Federations, Latet is prioritizing populations such as evacuees from the southern and northern border regions, senior citizens, Holocaust survivors, regular and reserve soldiers, and families in areas which are sustaining significant rocket attacks. Latet is also distributing 15,000 school kits for evacuee children in 1st to 6th grades that include everything needed for them to continue their studies at their temporary educational facilities.

Leket Israel

Leket Israel is the leading food rescue organization in Israel. Leket collects healthy, surplus food and distributes it to populations in need through partner organizations. With the support of Jewish Federations, Leket will provide hundreds of thousands of meals to evacuees, senior citizens, and families from the hardest-hit areas of Israel. It will also distribute reloadable food purchase cards for families in need, such as those who lost their source of income or single parents who are unable to work. Leket is also supporting local agriculture by purchasing millions of pounds of produce directly from Israeli farmers who are facing a significant labor crisis and competition from imports and collaborating with major institutions to enable high-school students to assist with agricultural harvests.

Additionally, Leket Israel has handled increased quantities of produce to support both agriculture and individuals, along with a significant increase for prepared food. As a result, local partners require additional infrastructure to store, refrigerate, heat, and handle the food safely. The infrastructure will assist the partners during the current war and in the future, enabling them to grow and service more people while maintaining the highest level of food hygiene. The large volume of food that has passed through the main Leket Israel warehouse has caused significant wear and tear on the existing infrastructure.

Leo Baeck Education Center

A historic partner for JFGH, a pluralistic and shared society community center and school. Leo Baeck is hosting refugees in their schools and providing spiritual care and special programming for the refugees and their community members. Leo Baeck is also maintaining their shared society programs, bringing together the different faiths in Haifa in solidarity.

Magen David Adom

Magen David Adom (MDA) is Israel's National Emergency Pre-Hospital Medical and Blood Services Organization. MDA is Israel's largest volunteer organization and provides emergency medical services across Israel. During emergencies, MDA's volunteers and professional staff work around the clock to save lives. Jewish Federations will assist MDA to urgently upgrade Basic Life Support ambulances to become Mobile Intensive Care Units and replenish critical medical supplies.

Meitarim Network for Inclusive Jewish Education

Meitarim Jewish Education & Community Network seeks to counter the 'religious-secular' dichotomy by breaking down the walls between the different sectors of society while providing a rich, diverse, pluralistic and complex Jewish education through its network of schools and communities. Classmates that observe Judaism differently not only grow up together, but openly discuss differing opinions on the Torah's source and their personal Shabbat observance.

Pantry Packers (Colel Chabad)*

Pantry Packers® is the food distribution arm of Tzedakah Central/Colel Chabad the oldest continuously operating network of social services in Israel – established in 1788. Every month Pantry Packers® delivers crates containing all the necessary foods and household maintenance supplies to Israel's poorest families and senior citizens. During the war, Pantry Packers also helped serve families on the front line and provided gift cards to those who have relocated.

Petach Tikvah Municipality

The Municipality is a historic partner of JFGH in terms of our relationship with Yoseftal/Dado. The municipality, like all in Israel, has taken on caring for refugees, expanding shelters, and implementing programs to help members of the city cope with the war such as childcare for all hospital employees while school was cancelled. These initiatives have impacted their budget, and while they received some funds from the government, there are programs they had planned to work on that will benefit the city. The Federation funded expanding computer rooms in five community centers. Most government services are accessible online, as well as educational resources and job training resources.

Through our annual allocations process, the Federation has also supported the Osim Shechuna program in the Yoseftal/Dado neighborhoods to engage teens in leadership and neighborhood improvements.

Rashi Foundation

The Rashi Foundation is a historic partner of JFGH via the Pedagogic Network (formally YEDA). Rashi is providing professional therapeutic services and emotional support for all Network school students who need it due to war-related trauma, food vouchers for Network school families whose income suffered under the war conditions, and computers for Network school students who need them for online classes and schoolwork. Coaches have stepped up to help with the shortage of teachers who have been called up to the IDF.

Sheba Medical Center

Sheba Medical Center is the largest hospital in the region and is a truly massive facility and the largest and most prominent medical center in the Middle East. There are treatments, research, and procedures at Sheba that are available nowhere else in the world. FIDF recently partnered with Sheba to launch a program for mental health of soldiers.

Shlavim

Shlavim empowers members of the Israeli religious community to achieve social integration and financial independence. They work to reduce dropout rates and poverty by providing practical guidance, educational opportunities, and support to individuals and families facing economic and social challenges. During the current crisis, Shlavim has helped relocate displaced families, coordinated bnei mitzvahs and other programming for displaced families. Additionally, they helped unemployed adults match with businesses whose employees were called up to serve in the IDF.

United Hatzalah

United Hatzalah is a community-based volunteer emergency medical service (EMS) operating across Israel. It has mobilized all 7,000 of its volunteers and dispatched over 120 rescue vehicles to Israel's southern region. With the help of Jewish Federations, United Hatzalah will be able to purchase critical emergency medical supplies to respond to ongoing attacks.

World ORT

World ORT, a historic Jewish Federations partner, provides STEAM education to thousands of students in close partnership with schools/municipalities throughout Israel's periphery. Jewish Federations will support mental health initiatives for students and teachers and will enable students who are displaced to maintain access to learning opportunities and essential technology.

WorldWide Friends

This organization has two arms, Ukraine Friends and Israel Friends. They support various grassroots efforts to help those impacted by the wars. This specific initiative that was supported provides non-military supplies to soldiers.

Zaka *

ZAKA (the Hebrew acronym for Disaster Victim Identification) is Israel's dominant non-governmental rescue and recovery organization, with over 3,000 volunteers. ZAKA has sole responsibility in Israel for dealing with incidents of unnatural death and works in close cooperation with all the emergency services and security forces. After the terrible terror attack, Zaka volunteers have been tending to the honor of the more than 1,200 deceased. Jewish Federations will help supply critical equipment and supplies to aid ZAKA to enable it to continue its difficult mission.
